

Privacy Statement

We are committed to keeping the non-public personal information ("NPI") we collect confidential and secure. Our Privacy Policy applies to potential, current and former clients:

HOW DO WE PROTECT YOUR PRIVACY?

- We restrict access to NPI to those employees who need it for their jobs
- We require anyone who performs services for us to conform to our privacy standards
- We disclose your NPI only as permitted or required by law
- We do not disclose your NPI to others for their own marketing purposes
- We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect your NPI
- We collect information directly from you unless you provide written authorization to gather information from other sources
- We are subject to a code of ethics as a CFP® professional and NAPFA member

WHAT INFORMATION DO WE COLLECT?

- Data you provide on Data Survey Forms and Questionnaires (i.e. name, address, date of birth, Social Security numbers, income, financial data, beneficiaries, etc.)
- Information on insurance policies, investments, paycheck stubs, tax returns you provide
- Credit reports provided by you or authorized by you for us to obtain
- Credit card and other loan agreement data you provide
- Home mortgage and Home Equity Line loan data you provide
- Records are maintained and safeguarded as long as required by law

TO WHOM DO WE DISCLOSE INFORMATION?

- We may share your NPI only if or when you ask or authorize us to do so to:
 - Realtors, life insurance agents, broker/dealers, estate attorneys, tax accountants, other related professionals
- A consumer reporting agency to detect or prevent fraud
- A regulatory, legal or government authority, for a compliance audit or under subpoena or court order

WHAT ARE YOUR RIGHTS?

- To know what NPI we have collected about you; this does not apply to NPI that relates to an actual or possible claim or civil or criminal action.
- To ask us in writing for a list of those whom we have disclosed your NPI
- To require your written authorization before we disclose your NPI for reasons not allowed or required by law
- To revoke at any time any authorization previously given subject to the rights of anyone who acted in reliance of your authorization before it was revoked

QUESTIONS or to CONTACT US?

BourGroup; Phillip D. Bour, CFP®
25925 Planting Field Drive, South Riding, VA 20152
phone and cell: 703-407-6697
website: www.9SimpleSteps.com e-mail: BourGroup@verizon.net